For President

ALTON B. PARKER,
of New York.For Vice-President, HENRY G. DAVIS, of West Virginia.Both candidates for Congress are gentlemen, and the campaign will be entirely devoid of disgusting personalities."Honest John" Marshall, of Maricopa county branded the joint statehood bill at an "iniquitous measure" at the meeting at the Opera House on Monday evening. That's the truth. Everybody in Arizona votes eye on that proposition, and a great majority of the people have not forgotten who passed that "iniquitous measure."If one miners' inch of water will irrigate five acres of alfalfa in the Salt River Valley, and there are stored in the Tonto reservoir 417-902,845 miners' inches, how many acres of corn can be irrigated by the rising generation in the next ten years? Ask Fowler, he knows.During the course of his speeches in this county, the Republican candidate stated: "Aren't we threatened more now on the statehood question than ever before?" That was another prayer. Arizona is seriously threatened at the present time and the "big stick" is being wielded by the Republican party.Will some of our esteemed Republican contemporaries tell us what kind of a murderous weapon the Hon. B. A.
Fowler will use when he kills that joint statehood bill that has been passed by an overwhelming Republican majority? "Honest John" said Fowler would kill it—when he took his seat in Congress—but blamed if we ain't hankering for details of the proposed tragedy.Mr. Fowler stated in his speech at the Opera House on Monday evening that the Republican Senators in the east, who favor joint statehood for Arizona and New Mexico, are honest in their opinion. That they were conscientious in this matter. Granted. The difference between the people of Arizona and these eastern Republicans, however, is just this: Arizona wants single statehood and our people are just as honest and just as conscientious in this contention as our Republican friends.

THE COUNCIL.

HB. Rice, of Graham.
Steve Roemer, of Cochise.
G. W. P. Hunt, of Gila.
Geo. P. Blair, of Pinal.
N. P. Bernard, of Pima.
Carl Hayden, of Maricopa.
J. B. Whiteside, of Mojave county.The above named well known and popular Democrats of Arizona have been nominated for the council from their several counties. The nomination of these gentlemen in eight of the counties of the Territory is a guarantee that the next council will be controlled by the Democrats, as their election is a foregone conclusion.
They are all men of ability, they have all had the experience of former service in the law making bodies of Arizona and each has a record which entitles him to election now.Not only does the nomination of such men guarantee Democratic control in the next legislative council but it is also an assurance that every interest of the people of Arizona will be conserved and faithfully promoted by the next legislature. The council is the safety valve of the legislature and with such men in that body Arizona and the Democratic party in the Territory may be congratulated on the fact that so many prominent and worthy men will sit in it next winter.

IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL
BAKING
POWDER
Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTEWHAT ANSWER WILL ARIZONA MAKE TO THIS?It remained for that contemptible sheet, the Los Angeles Times, to start a campaign of abuse directed at the Democratic candidate for Congress in Arizona.The following is an editorial squib appearing in the times of recent date:
"From Arizona comes the pleasant news that the Territory is likely to shake itself clear this year of one Smith—The Smith—at the same time departing from the Democratic ranks into the column of Republicanism.
Smith is the individual who distinguished himself in the summer time a year ago, in a speech before a political organization in Los Angeles, in which he abused a Senator of the State that was giving him its hospitality; and then he sang a paean of praise to Kentucky whisky."It is very probable that the abuse came through over-indulgence in the fluid exalted. It is, indeed, charitable to assume that Smith was drunk at the time. In Washington it has been said that certain Pennsylvania booze resorts have known the Arizona representative much more intimately than have the corridors of the Capitol."The above is from the pen of Harrison Grey Otis, the editor of the Los Angeles Times and the only paper on the Pacific slope that opposed the admission of Arizona to single statehood after the bill had passed the House of Representatives.Further than that, the article has emanated from a source that controls the actions of one Senator Bard, the only Western Senator, who was, so little-minded, and so bereft of decency, as to raise his voice against the admission of this Territory at this time.What answer will the Arizona Democrats make to this vile slander?The Los Angeles Times and Senator Bard, no doubt, would be particularly pleased at this time to see the Hon.
M. A. Smith remain at home, and with another Republican puppet in their hands, see the consummation of their wild desires, the placing of Arizona under the yoke of New Mexico.The attack of the Los Angeles Times insures the election of M. A.
Smith by a still greater majority. The people of Arizona do not know the Los Angeles Times as their friend, individually or as a commonwealth. The Los Angeles Times and its tool, Senator Bard, may rant and rave and vilify the ablest representative this Territory ever had in Congress, but the people of Arizona cannot be fooled by such "hog wash."It is true that Marcus Smith was brave enough to beard the California Senator in his den. A man who not only betrayed the interests of the citizens of Arizona, but the best interests of Southern California and the entire west, and who has since been repudiated in his home district.It is true that in Los Angeles Marcus A. Smith challenged the statement that Arizona was at a standstill; that its mines were about worked out, and that its people were not capable of self government, and hurled the lie into the teeth of Mr. Bard and the Los Angeles Times, amid the applause of every business man in the city of Los Angeles.The Times says Mark Smith was drunk at the time. Yes, drunk with a feeling of righteous indignation that swelled up in his loyal breast when he heard the name of this Territory besmirched; drunk with the sense of outrage that had been perpetrated upon a people who had time and again honored him and who were left without any defense; drunk with the resolve to brand as false the prejudiced statements made upon the floor of the Senate by the pet and mouth piece of the Los Angeles Times.The people of Arizona know Mark Smith. He needs no introduction through the columns of the Los Angeles Times.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY PLATFORM.

To the Chairman and Members of the Cochise County Democratic Convention:
We, your Committee on Platform, beg leave to submit the following report:Resolved, That we, as Democrats, renew our faith in Democrtic principles, and pledge our united support to the nominees of the Democratic party. We honor our candidate for Congress, Mark Smith, for his faithful service in the past, and with a clear conscience and perfect confidence we pledge the people faithful work by him in the future.We denounce the Republican National Administration and majority in Congress for refusing to Arizona statehood, after the National Republican convention pledged it to the Arizona delegation and the people of the Nation.And we further denounce them for their diabolical attempt to foist on the people joint statehood with New Mexico, which is obnoxious to both territories, and would rob each of the heritage guaranteed to their citizens and granted in the admission of all other states.We further arraign the Republican party and its administration of the government for the gross increase of expenditures which is wholly disproportionate to the increase of population and the necessities of economical government.The Democratic party in the passage of what is known as the "Cowan bill" in the last legislature saved to the taxpayers more than $35,000 per year by taking from the office of secretary of the territory fees which he was receiving on account of incorporation work and turning that amount into the territorial treasury, and we pledge that our nominees to the Territorial Council and Assembly will see that this economical legislation is not undone.We favor the passage by the Territorial Council and Assembly of a primary election law which shall secure to the people an easy and fair means of electing delegates to political conventions by the electors.WM. NEVILLE, Chairman.
GEO. H. KELLY.
HARRY JENNINGS.
J. S. TAYLOR.
JAS. LETSON.clast put it well when he said, in speaking of Otis: "A thousand souls as small as yours could roam around the head of a pin throughout all eternity and never come in contact."What answer will Arizona Democrats make to the slander of the Los Angeles Times?Elect Mark Smith to Congress by a larger majority than ever before.REPUBLICAN SPELLBINDERS.The Republican spellbinders are going over the territory telling the people that the only hope of single statehood for Arizona lies in the election of B. A. Fowler, the Republican candidate for congress.This is not the first time the Republican party has appealed to the people of Arizona for votes on the question of statehood. They have, for years, pleaded with our people for votes on the ground that if Arizona would vote the Republican ticket it could get anything asked for from the Republican party. But Arizona is not the only Territory where the Republicans have in the past promised statehood in return for Republican votes.In New Mexico two years ago the people were promised that in case Rodey, the Republican candidate for Congress, was elected, that Territory would be admitted as a state.
New Mexico elected Rodey by a majority little less than seven thousand. The Republicans refused to admit New Mexico, just the same as they refused to admit Arizona. When the people of Arizona now listen to the promises of the Republican spellbinders talk about statehood it will be well to remember the "cross" given New Mexico after inducing the people of that Territory to vote the Republican ticket at the last election.Word comes from Phoenix that Candidate Fowler in his speech in that city accepted statehood as the paramount issue in the Arizona campaign.
We are glad of this. On this issue the Republicans have no right to expect any votes in this territory. The Republican party has committed itself to joint statehood by remaining silent in its national convention on thequestion of statehood and thereby approving the joint statehood bill passed by the last session of Congress. No one can controvert this conclusion, because of the fact the the Republican party has not remained silent in twelve years in its national conventions until the last one held in Chicago. Why were they silent in Chicago last June? Because they wanted to keep the pending joint statehood bill their approval. The Republican delegates from Arizona in the Chicago convention insisted and pleaded with the leaders for an expression against the merger statehood bill, but they were turned down on the proposition.The only hope now for Arizona to avert the condition which will come with joint statehood with New Mexico lies in the determined opposition of the Democrats in the Senate. The merger bill has passed the lower house of congress; with the united opposition of the Democrats in the Senate the passage of the bill can be prevented under the rules of that body.
These Democrats have promised to stand by the people of Arizona in their struggle to preserve the political autonomy of Arizona and they will expect the people of Arizona to stand by the Democratic party while they are making the great fight for Arizona.A Republican majority in Arizona would be nothing more or less than an endorsement of the merger statehood bill. A Democratic majority will give notice to the world that Arizona wants independent statehood or none at all.
